The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or
REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
  - (1) Field of the Invention.
  - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 1772

2. Claims 12-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification, in page 1, paragraph 1, recites that "the materials producing the release properties are located within the plastic layer". However, the specification fails to teach as to how is said plastic layer containing the release material there within formed. Applicant should also note that release property exhibiting material nor the plastic layer material containing it are disclosed in the specification. Thus, the specification is not deemed to be enabling.

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the specification, in pages 4 and 5, contains abbreviation of material for plastic and adhesive. Applicant is requested to replace the abbreviations by the full word of each of the recited material.

Appropriate correction is required.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 12-13 and 15-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Duncan (4,626,460).

Duncan relates to a multi-layer composite material comprising a layer of adhesive and a layer of release material is sandwiched between a first and a second web of plastic film (abstract). The facing layer as web can itself be a laminate of at least two plastic films (col. 2, lines 13-15) to provide for further layers being located on the outside of the web. The layers can be coextruded (col. 1, lines 38-45) and at least [art of the coextrudate structure is oriented (abstract). The release layer can have release agent incorporate into or coated on the film (abstract). As for the process for producing the composite comprising providing a first web with adhesive that is adhered to a release layer on a second web. The coextrudate layers are coextruded simultaneously.

6. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification in pages 2 and 4, recites that the coextrudate can be produced by "the blown film process" but fails to teach or disclose at to how said process forms the coextrudates. In the absence of any showing, it is not clear as to how a "blown film" process can form a coextruded four layer composite.
